MR. and MRS.

Carter De Haven

With King Baggott and Grace Cunard, in

He hid in a taxi to avoid meeting his father. A beautiful young girl entered and he was whisked away.

He had pawned his father's best clothes. His father insisted on calling him a "mollycod-dle."

Father caught in a jam with another woman, had to convince friend wife of his innocence.

A policeman, upon being called to quell a disturbance, found his wife a member of the riotous party.

These are only a few of the countless funny situations in DeHaven's latest and best farce comedy.
